The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 11. to Tuesday September 14. 1725.

Hambourg, September 11.

THE King of Denmark having a few Days ago come over into Holſtein, ſtopped three Days at Gluckſtadt, and having viewed the Regiments in Garriſon there, ſet out Yeſterday from thence, to go by Itzehoe to Rendesbourg, where ſome Troops are to paſs in Review before him. From thence his Majeſty will take his Way by Frederickſort, Eckelnforde, and Schleſwig, to return to Denmark. The Senate of this City ſent Deputies to wait on his Daniſh Majeſty at Gluckſtadt, but they were not admitted. Mr. Wych, his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary, having had Audience there of the King of Denmark, is returned hither. M. Gabel, the Daniſh Admiral, came Yeſterday to Altena, to view the new Fort which is building in the Neighbourhood of that Place; and then ſet out to meet the King his Maſter at Rendesbourg.

Bruſſels, Sept. 19. On Sunday laſt the 16th Inſtant, the Marqueſs de Roſſi, the French Miniſter reſiding here, gave a very ſplendid Entertainment in the Palace of Egmont, on Occaſion of the moſt Chriſtian King's Marriage. Count Daun, Governour General of the Auſtrian Netherlands, with his Lady, and the chief of the Nobility of both Sexes, were upon the Marqueſs's Invitation preſent at this Entertainment. The Prince and Princeſs of Sultzbach, Proprietors of the Marquiſate of Bergen op Zoom, having let to Farm the Revenues of that Marquiſate, are going to reſide in the Dutchy of Neubourg, on the Invitation of the Elector Palatine. Prince Alexander de la Tour-Taxis, and Count Daun our Governour's Son, are returned from Fontainebleau, whither they went to ſee the French King's Marriage celebrated. We have received Advice by an Expreſs, that the Archdutcheſs Elizabeth is arrived at Prague on her Way hither from Vienna: And her Journey is ſo ſettled, that on the 3d of October ſhe will paſs by Maeſtricht, the 4th by Louvain, and arrive the 6th at the Seat of Ter-Vuren, where her Highneſs will ſtay till the Palace here is got ready, as alſo the Triumphal Arches which the Magiſtrates of this City have ordered to be erected againſt ſhe makes her Entry; as was done for the Reception of the Archduke Albert and his Conſort Iſabella, and of the Cardinal Infant, former Governours of theſe Provinces.

Hanover, Sept. 7, O. S. On the 2d Inſtant Colonel du Bourgay, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majeſty to the Pruſſian Court, returned with his Lady to Berlin. The ſame Day his Majeſty took the Diverſion of Hunting, as he did alſo Yeſterday, and was entertained at Dinner at the Country Seat of M. Dehne, chief Miniſter to the Duke of Wolfembuttle, who is come hither with a Commiſſion from his Maſter to ſettle the Ceremonies, in order to his having an Interview with his Majeſty, and other Affairs. Upon Advice of the Archdutcheſs's being ſet out from Vienna for the Auſtrian Netherlands, Prince William of Heſſe-Caſſel, Governour of Maeſtricht, ſet out from hence on the 5th for that Place, to receive her Highneſs there jointly with the Deputies of the States General. The Queen of Pruſſia deſigns to go from hence the Beginning of next Week, and the Court will go into Mourning immediately after her Departure for the Prince d'Aoſte, Grandſon to the King of Sardinia.

Whitehall, September 13.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint William Paſſenger, Eſq; Henry Cartwright, Eſq; Sir George Saunders, Kt. William Fiſher, Eſq; Stephen Biſſe, Eſq; George Huxley, Eſq; and Edward Trelawny, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy.

South-